

PRIVATE EQUITY VICE PRESIDENT POSITION

Location: Chicago, IL

Start Date: Flexible (prefer no later than summer 2023)

Job Description: Prospect Partners seeks qualified candidates for a Vice President position with its investment team. The opportunity is ideal for professionals with at least five years of highly relevant experience in investment banking, consulting, leveraged finance, or private equity who want to help build leading middle-market companies as part of a collaborative, entrepreneurial team. As critical team members, our Vice Presidents take a leading role in analyzing and executing investment opportunities and supporting portfolio companies. Our Vice Presidents work closely with Prospect's Partners as well as portfolio company management teams, lenders and intermediaries. All members of the Prospect team are expected to handle a high level of responsibility and high-performing Vice Presidents have the opportunity for continued advancement with Prospect.

Qualifications: We seek candidates with relevant work experience who can hit the ground running and quickly contribute. Candidates should possess strong analytical skills (including accounting acumen and financial analysis), a record of achievement, demonstrated leadership, excellent interpersonal and communication skills, and the desire to be part of an entrepreneurial organization. The willingness to dig deep into details and support entrepreneurial companies are key attributes. The ability to build relationships with investment bankers, financing sources, and management teams will be an important element of the successful candidate's profile. Previous private equity experience is strongly preferred.

Key Responsibilities:

- Actively build and maintain relationships with investment bankers, financing sources, and management teams;
- Analyze and execute on new investment opportunities, including formulating investment theses, leading due diligence processes, building financial models, and developing investment materials;
- Monitor portfolio company performance and value creation initiatives, as well as assist with strategic projects;
- Lead, design, and conduct primary research, including interviews with industry experts;
- Prepare quarterly and annual portfolio financial and valuation reports; and
- Mentor, train and assist in career development of Associates.

Key Requirements:

- At least 5 years of experience in investment banking, consulting, leveraged finance, or private equity with experience at the associate/VP level preferred;
- Excellent organizational, interpersonal, and communication skills;
- Strong analytical ability, including demonstrated knowledge of valuation techniques and cash flow analysis;
- Demonstrated sound business judgment;
- Superior work ethic and positive, entrepreneurial attitude; and
- Attentive to detail, proactive, organized, and able to work both independently and as part of a team.
